In 2022, GC Abruzzo, on behalf of the NLRB, entered into interagency MOUs with the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) and the Department of Justice's Antitrust Division (DOJ) to promote fair competition and advance workers' rights. These MOUs (FTC here and DOJ here) facilitate information sharing, partnering on investigative efforts within each agency's authority, and cross-training for staff at each agency. This month, staff from the FTC and DOJ will offer trainings for NLRB staff on their missions and the laws they enforce, how their work intersects with ours, and our interagency collaboration. The goal of this training is to provide you with the tools to identify issues arising in our cases that might also violate anti-trust and consumer protection laws, to understand what to do if you identify an issue, and to understand how this can strengthen our own enforcement efforts. You are invited to join for either or both trainings, which will take place over Zoom. You will soon receive an outlook invitation for the DOJ training, which will take place on Tuesday, January 17 at 1pm EST and the FTC training, which will take place on Thursday, January 26 at 1pm EST. Please note that these trainings will not be recorded. If you have any questions, please contact DAGC David Mori in the Division of Operations-Management.

Speaker Recording Checklist

Before you start, here are some tips for a better recording experience:

- Use a computer with a Chrome browser that's up-to-date.
- Check your internet stability. Ethernet cable connections are preferred over WiFi.
- Use an external mic, if possible. Even the mic in your ear/headphones are better than nothing.
- Use headphones/earphones to prevent echo and increase audio quality.
- Close all other applications that don't need to be open during the recording. This prevents CPU overload. Important: Please close all other programs that try to use your mic/camera.

If you are not speaking, but will participate in the session, you can click on the link below:

In 2022, GC Abruzzo, on behalf of the NLRB, entered into interagency MOUs with the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) and the Department of Justice's Antitrust Division (DOJ) to promote fair competition and advance workers' rights. These MOUs (FTC here and DOJ here) facilitate information sharing, partnering on investigative efforts within each agency's authority, and cross-training for staff at each agency. This month, staff from the FTC and DOJ will offer trainings for NLRB staff on their missions and the laws they enforce, how their work intersects with ours, and our interagency collaboration. The goal of this training is to provide you with the tools to identify issues arising in our cases that might also violate anti-trust and consumer protection laws, to understand what to do if you identify an issue, and to understand how this can strengthen our own enforcement efforts. You are invited to join for either or both trainings, which will take place over Zoom. You will soon receive an outlook invitation for the DOJ training, which will take place on Tuesday, January 17 at 1pm EST and the FTC training, which will take place on Thursday, January 26 at 1pm EST. Please note that these trainings will not be recorded. If you have any questions, please contact DAGC David Mori in the Division of Operations-Management.

Guest Speaker

Paula J. Giddings

the Elizabeth A. Woodson 1922 Professor, Emerita, of Africana Studies at Smith College

Professor Giddings is the author of four books: When and Where I Enter: The Impact on Black Women on Race and Sex in America; In Search of Sisterhood, Delta Sigma Theta and the Challenge of the Black Sorority Movement; Burning All Illusions, (editor) an anthology of articles on race published by the Nation magazine from 1867 to 2000; and Ida, A Sword Among Lions: Ida B. Wells and the Campaign Against Lynching. Professor Giddings work examines the intersection of black women, race, and sex within American History. Please join us as Professor Giddings discusses the role of black women in the labor movement.

Creating a Culture of Inclusion for LGBTQIA+ Colleagues and Constituents Training -- via Zoom link below

On January 24, the General Counsel and Chairman announced an initiative to ensure that all Agency processes are accessible and respectful to all transgender, nonbinary, and gender nonconforming people who interact with the Agency, whether as an employee or applicant, or in connection with a case.

As mentioned in the announcement, a labor management forum (LMF) has prepared Agency-wide training: "Creating a Culture of Inclusion for LGBTQIA+ Colleagues and Constituents." The training will explain basic concepts and terms and provide strategies and best practices for building an inclusive and respectful environment.

The training is required for all employees. If you are unable to attend the live training, please seek supervisor approval to view the recording, which will be available after the live event.

Wednesday

Lisa Banks and I have the honor again to serve as your facilitators for the Government Plenary Update for the ABA National Conference on EEO Law on March 29, 2023 at 9 a.m. in Las Vegas.

Thank you for the quick responses to our email on February 21.

As we need to submit materials (which are typically government publications/press releases for this panel), and similar to years past, we will have a short group planning call on Wednesday March 15 at 3:30 p.m. – 4:30 p.m. Eastern via Teams.

We suggest that our panel structure follow years past at the ABA National Conference on EEO Law. We would suggest a short 3-5 minute opening for each of our senior government leaders and then we engage in some cross conversation on EEOC/DOL/DOJ/NLRB topics.

Lisa and I will come prepared to the planning call with a few suggested topics for the cross-conversation portion, but we obviously want to make sure we cover what you want to cover in this program.

Attached is the full conference agenda.

Also, if you have picture that you would like me to use for our panel PowerPoint (other than the picture I find on the EEOC/DOJ/DOL/NLRB website by way of example), please let me know and I will use that picture.

We also typically include a bio in the materials – these are links I found on your agency websites, if there is a better bio/pdf version, happy to submit that as well.

NLRB/FMCS Interview for DOL Blog -- Microsoft Teams Meeting

CAUTION: The sender of this message is external to the NLRB network. Please use care when clicking on links and responding with sensitive information. Forward suspicious emails to nlrbirc@nrlrb.gov.

Purpose: DOL, under Deputy Assistant Secretary for Policy Cassie Robertson's leadership, are doing a blog series focusing on employer neutrality and voluntary recognition. NLRB and FMCS's joint work to help parties reach initial collective bargaining agreements would be a great addition to this series, and we would like to interview the two of you for the blog to hear about the initiative, what it is, how it's going, and how parties can take advantage of it.

Attendees:

Subject: Constitutionality Day 2023

When: Wednesday, April 12, 2023 1:30 PM-2:30 PM (UTC-05:00) Eastern Time (US & Canada).

Where: Zoom for Government

For your added convenience, here is an Outlook invite for next week's event you can save to your calendar!

(b) (6)

April 12, 2023, marks the 86th anniversary of NLRB v. Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp., the Supreme Court's historic decision affirming the constitutionality of the National Labor Relations Act. At the NLRB, every April 12th is Constitutionality Day – a time to celebrate our shared commitment to the mission of the Act and your dedication to effectuating it every day.

Please join us at 1:30 p.m. EST next Wednesday for a special Constitutionality Day agency-wide event! Professor Juan Perea from Loyola University Chicago School of Law will join us to share his thoughts on the passage of the NLRA, the rights it brought to so many, as well as its significant exclusions. Professor Perea has written an important law review article on these matters, which you can find here. In addition, he was a Field Attorney in Region 1 before becoming a professor, so he knows first-hand about our important mission.

The Chairman and General Counsel will also offer short remarks, and we will have our traditional reading from Jones & Laughlin! The link to join is below, and we look forward to seeing you there.

HOLD FOR IUOE Pre-Recording

Below is a link to use today for the test recording. It is the same link for Ms. Abruzzo to use on Monday.

(b) (6)

Below is a link for you or anyone else who wants to be on the call Monday but doesn't want to be recorded.

(b) (6)

Below are some recording tips.

- Use a Chrome or Edge browser that's up to date. Chrome update instructions Edge update Instructions
- Close all applications that don't need to be open during the recording. Like Outlook or Office.
- Give Chrome/Edge access to use the mic/camera.
- If you don't have access to a computer, use the free riverside.fm app Here
- Chromebooks will NOT work
- After recording has stopped, do not close Chrome or shut down your computer until the file has finished uploading (there is a upload meter that will display how much is left...it should be pretty quick).

- * Use a computer (desktop or laptop) instead of tablet, phone or Chromebook.
- * If you can, hardwire your computer into the internet (more reliable than Wi-Fi)
- * Adjust your camera so it is at eye level. (Books, etc. can help raise up your laptop or desktop screen).
- * Never sit with your back to a window. In fact, for best lighting, face a window.
- * If you can't face a window, be in a VERY well-lit room.
- * Have a blank wall or something neutral behind you. We don't want your background distracting from you.
- * Find a quiet space and shut the door.
- * Look at the camera, not at yourself or the other people on the screen.
- * Make sure your computer is on a solid surface. It shouldn't shake if you touch your desk.

11:00 AM - 11:30 AM

Travel to DOJ for Holocaust Remembrance Event

11:30 AM - 1:00 PM

Holocaust Remembrance Event @ DOJ Great Hall -- 950 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20530
Greetings,

We are looking forward to your in-person participation in the upcoming 30th Annual Federal Inter-Agency Holocaust Remembrance Program, "Rays of Hope," that will be held on Tuesday, April 18, 2023, from 11:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. (EDT) in the Great Hall of the Robert F. Kennedy \(RFK\) Main Justice Building located at 950 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington, DC, 20530

The program will feature two Holocaust survivors, Peter Gorog and Manny Mandel, in a moderated discussion with Eli Rosenbaum, Counselor for War Crimes Accountability and Director of Human Rights Enforcement Strategy and Policy, U.S. Department of Justice. There will also be special remarks from federal agency leadership.

As a reminder, the in-person participation for this program is by invitation only and we ask that you please do not share this correspondence with anyone who has not previously registered. If you are no longer able to join us in person or wish to add someone else to the list of participants please contact (b) (6) @usdoj.gov. Also, please encourage other Federal employees and the general public to visit the Federal Inter-Agency Holocaust Remembrance Program website to learn more about this observance and to view the program broadcast live from the Department of Justice.

Planning Your In-Person Visit to the RFK Main Justice Building:

- Please plan to arrive at least 20 minutes prior to the start of the program. The program will start promptly at 11:30 a.m. EDT.
- All guests for this event must enter the RFK Main Justice building via the corner of Constitution Avenue, NW and 10th Street (across from the Internal Revenue Service building). In the event you arrive later than 11:25a.m., you must use the “visitors entrance” located on Constitution Ave. between 9th and 10th street (across from the Smithsonian Natural History Museum).
- Remember to bring your federal agency employee ID (if applicable), or government issued ID, such as a driver’s license or passport.
- Getting here: The closest metro stop to the building is Archives-Navy Memorial-Penn Quarter. Also nearby is the Gallery Pl-Chinatown metro stop which is two blocks north of the building. There are public parking garages near the building on the corner of 9th and E street NW, and also on 10th Street between E St. and Constitution Ave.
- If you have additional questions please contact (b) (6) at (b) (6) @usdoj.gov or (b) (6).

Inter Agency Commemoration of Holocaust Days of Remembrance -- via Zoomlink in announcement below

The 30th Annual Federal Inter-Agency Holocaust Remembrance Program

"Rays of Hope"

Date: Tuesday, April 18, 2023

Time: 11:30am (EST)

Link: Federal Inter-Agency Holocaust Remembrance Program website

The 30th Annual Federal Inter-Agency Holocaust Remembrance Program, “Rays of Hope,” will be held on Tuesday, April 18, 2023, from 11:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. (EDT). This year’s program occurs on Holocaust Remembrance Day (Yom Hashoah). All federal employees are encouraged to visit the Federal Inter-Agency Holocaust Remembrance Program website for additional information and also to view the program broadcast from the Department of Justice.

The Holocaust (also called the Shoah) was the systematic, state-sponsored murder of six million Jews by Nazi Germany and its collaborators during World War II. It was part of the “Final Solution” – the Nazi plan to annihilate more than nine million Jews in Europe. The Nazis murdered millions of others as well. In 1980, Congress expressed its intent that Holocaust remembrance should be observed “throughout the United States” each year.

The program will feature two Holocaust survivors, Peter Gorog and Manny Mandel, both of the Washington, D.C. area and volunteers at the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum. Eli Rosenbaum, Counselor for War Crimes Accountability and Director of Human Rights Enforcement Strategy and Policy, U.S. Department of Justice, will moderate the program.

Peter Gorog was born in Budapest in 1941. His father aspired to be a lawyer but could not attend law school because he was Jewish. Instead, Peter’s father was conscripted into a forced labor battalion in the Hungarian armed service, where he later died. His mother supported the family with her hat-making business until German forces invaded Hungary in March 1944. They were forced to find refuge with a family friend until a neighbor denounced them. After being arrested and jailed, Peter’s mother escaped and they moved into an apartment building, protected by the Swiss embassy. In October 1944, the Hungarian government began a reign of terror against the Jews in Budapest. Peter and his mother moved to the Budapest ghetto and spent most of their time in the basement during frequent air raids. After weeks of fierce fighting, the Budapest ghetto was liberated by the Soviet Army in January 1945.

Peter grew up in Communist Hungary and participated in the design of the first Hungarian-made computer. He defected to the United States in 1980 and spent his career working for the federal government as a contractor, including at the Department of Justice, where he supported the FBI's Image Restoration Project. Peter also worked at the Department of Defense, the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, and for NASA's Goddard Space Flight Center, where he worked on the James Webb Space Telescope.

Manny Mandel was born in 1936 and grew up in Hungary. The impact of the Holocaust came later in the war years, through unexpected deportation to Bergen Belsen and family separation. In 1945, Manny and his mother immigrated to Palestine, where they were reunited with Manny's father. They then moved to the United States, settling in Philadelphia, where Manny attended the University of Pennsylvania. He was a practicing psychotherapist in Maryland until his retirement in 2014.

Sign language interpreting will be provided. Requests for reasonable accommodation may be submitted to (b) (6) @eeoc.gov (6)@eeoc.gov)

The Federal Inter-Agency Holocaust Remembrance Program started at the Department of Education in 1994. Comprised of dozens of federal agencies, its mission is to educate federal employees, students, and the public about the Holocaust through the stories of survivors, who show what can happen if prejudice, hate, and intolerance against any individual or group of people goes unchallenged. The NLRB has actively participated on the Inter Agency Planning Committee since 2019.

*The program will be recorded and available on the Inter-Agency Holocaust Remembrance website. When the Inter-Agency committee provides the link of the recorded program, we will share it with you.

What are the economic drivers of college sports and how do they affect athlete education? The NCAA's Division I athletics enterprise generates $15.8 billion in annual revenues of which only $2.9 billion --18.2 percent -- is returned to athletes in the form of athletics scholarships and only 1 percent is spent on medical treatment and insurance protections compared to 35 percent spent on administrative and coach compensation and 18% on lavish facilities. Will a redistribution of expenditures address unacceptable academic outcomes or the long-term impact of athletic injuries?

NLRB OCIO Customer Service Portal Workshop -- Microsoft Teams Meeting

In preparation for the OCIO Customer Service Portal, Allison Davis, ACIO ESS OCIO and OCIO team members will conduct several workshops next week to provide guidance and an overview of our new self-service Customer Service Portal.

The new OCIO portal will provide an additional contact channel for you to request IT support services from the Service Desk. The portal will also include access to self-help knowledge articles to help you resolve some commonly requested IT support services.

Although the workshop is not mandatory, we encourage you to attend one of the available sessions so that you can learn more about our exciting new IT services offering. We look forward to continuing to improve and expand how the OCIO provides quality IT services to the Agency.

Jennifer, Peter and Jessica,

Here is the Teams link created by Ashley for (b) (6) in the GC Conference Room on Thursday, 4/27.

This is on the calendar beginning at 2, only because we wanted to have the room reserved ahead of time so we can set up. The festivities will not begin until 2:30 pm and we plan to have the actual toasts begin at about 2:40 pm after we get everyone settled in the room. So, if GC wants to come into the meeting at about 2:40 pm to say a few words, that would be great!

2023 Spring Pro Bono Event --

(b) (6)

Please join the General Counsel, Chairman, and the NLRB Pro Bono and Volunteer Services Committee as we honor Mental Health Awareness Month by welcoming Dr. Tracey Meyers to present: Mindfulness and Self-Compassion for Lawyers and Legal Professionals. All agency personnel are invited and encouraged to attend.

Research has found that mindfulness and self-compassion practices can improve quality of life and decrease feelings of isolation, disconnection, depression, and burnout. However, it can be very difficult for many of us, especially for lawyers and legal professionals to give ourselves the care and compassion we need to thrive. Dr. Meyers' presentation is designed to teach us how to weave more self-compassion into our daily lives and recognize that these practices are not self-indulgent, but actually hold the key to our overall well-being and sense of belonging.

Dr. Meyers will help us explore some gentle self-compassion meditations including mindfulness of breath, affectionate body scan, supportive touch, self-compassion break, compassionate breathing, and guided visualizations for inner strength.

Dr. Meyers is a licensed clinical psychologist in the state of Massachusetts. She joined Lawyers Concerned for Lawyers in August of 2020 following her work for the State of Connecticut Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services where she spent over 15 years working in inpatient and outpatient mental health settings. Dr. Meyers has a strong commitment to integrative medicine for mental health and wellness and leads mindfulness and yoga programs for groups, individuals, and professionals in the workplace. She authored several articles, book chapters, and the recently published, Yin Yoga Therapy and Mental Health (Singing Dragon, 2022), a guide for wellbeing practices.

We hope to see you for this valuable virtual opportunity!
